

SEDAN FLORAL GROWN SAFE™

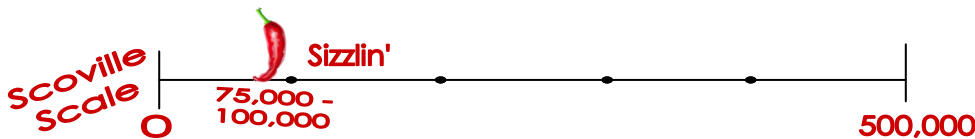

Exposure ☀️ Full Sun	↔️ Spacing 18-24"	↕️ Height 18-24"	💧 Water Average	Days to Maturity 70
----------------------------	-------------------------	------------------------	-----------------------	---------------------------

THAI DRAGON PEPPER

Thai Dragon Pepper plant grows about 1-2' high and can produce up to 200 chilés in a single season. It should be planted in fertile, moist to well-drained soil.

Five times hotter than the Jalapeño, the Thai Dragon Pepper is a scorcher. It is a small, pointed red pepper, growing 3-4" long. It matures from medium green to dark red.

Plant it Here!

Mass Planting
Gardens

Serve it up

- Raw
- Baked
- Fried
- Sautéed
- Grilled
- Stewed
- Steamed

Harvest Instructions

Harvest at any stage but the flavor is not fully developed until bright red

Use a sharp garden tool to cut the pepper off the plant making sure not to damage it

You should also avoid touching your eyes or mouth when harvesting

Health Benefits

- Contains Vitamins A & C
- Contains Vitamin B6
- Contains Iron & Potassium

A fresh and healthy way to better living™

