Nemesia - 'Angelart'

Nemesia produces a pretty green foliage and adorns itself with an abundance of delicate blooms. The dense upright growth habit and stems of colorful blooms makes this a great choice for landscape, baskets and containers! Its blooms are scattered atop the foliage and bloom through early Spring, Summer, and Fall. Nemesia is desired most for its delicate blossoms, sweet fragrance and mounding, upright growth habit for landscape, beds, baskets and containers. This is a great annual for early Spring, Summer and Fall. They mature to about 14-16" tall and about 8-12" wide. Nemesia prefers sun but can handle some shade. Nemesia grows best in moist, well drained soil. Please remember, this pretty may need a little extra TLC and more consistent watering when in a container!

Nemesia is available in Angelart Almond Improved, Angelart Pear and Angelart Raspberry.
